This is a favorite folk song of teachers for introducing bird names - fourteen in total! Also, wedding vocabulary is learned as the birds in the song celebrate a marriage. Die Gedanken sind frei. The oft-repeated refrain "Die Gedanken sind frei" stays in your head. This German song made popular internationally through Elvis is good practice for those German learners who want to learn a little bit of southern German dialect. Dat du min Leevsten bÄ¼st. Now to practice some northern Plattdeutsch. However, in the 19th century, it was known as a dancing folk song. This song is perfect for learning colors and job titles simultaneously. What I like most about this song is that you can insert your own color into the song and the accompanying job title associated with it. Date Published: 4th May 2006. Book. $17.75. Special import.
