

May 2019

Dear Parent/Carer,

At the end of Year 9, students were given the opportunity to purchase copies of the texts they are studying for GCSE English Literature. We are currently doing the same for our present year 9, but would like to offer you a further opportunity to purchase these texts at the discounted price, should you wish to do so. By having their own copies of the texts, pupils are able to take detailed notes in lessons and are better able to revise for their exams, which are 'closed book' and therefore require a thorough knowledge of the texts.

Purchasing the books through school will offer you a small discount compared with general retail prices and ensure that you have full, good quality editions of the texts.

The cost is £15.60. This includes the three main texts studied for English Literature:

- Macbeth by William Shakespeare (Longman, ISBN: 9781408236864)
- A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens (Scholastic, ISBN: 9781407143644)
- An Inspector Calls by J.B Priestley (Penguin classics, ISBN: 9780141185354)

We are also offering students in Year 10 the opportunity to purchase the texts individually at the following prices:

- Macbeth by William Shakespeare (Longman, ISBN: 9781408236864) - £5.85
- A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens (Scholastic, ISBN: 9781407143644) - £3.25
- An Inspector Calls by J.B Priestley (Penguin classics, ISBN: 9780141185354) - £6.50

Although it is beneficial for students to have their own copies of the text, please be assured that copies of the above texts are available to all students in school, so there is no obligation to buy the text. School copies, however, cannot be annotated so pupils will need to find alternative ways of making notes.

To place an order, please make payment via ParentPay before Tuesday 9 July. All books ordered will be given out to pupils in September 2019 in English lessons.

Yours sincerely
