Turnitin.com Instructions and Information

The papers for this class will be submitted via www.turnitin.com and in hard copy to the instructor.

Write your papers using standard programs, such as MS Word, or create a PDF file.

Turnitin software will scan your papers to determine the degree to which you may have copied the work of others. Be sure to put what you learn in your own words. If your paper contains plagiarized material, you will receive little or no credit for the entire paper.

After submitting a paper, Turnitin will generate an “Originality Report” in a few minutes. Acceptable work should be in the “blue” or “green” range – not red, orange, or yellow – and there should be no large sections of text that are identified as copied. In other words, possibly copied text should be short quotations or phrases and spread throughout the paper.

After submitting a paper, you will have the opportunity to view the “Originality Report” and use it to identify the problematic parts of your paper. You may then revise and resubmit your paper. (To resubmit, just follow the instructions for submitting the paper again.) Your instructor will only get to see your paper on the due date for the paper, so he will only see the last version of the paper that was uploaded into Turnitin.com.

Plagiarism:

Plagiarism is not tolerated in any form, whether intentional or unintentional.

Plagiarism (“copying”) is presenting someone else’s work as your own. Altering a few words here and there does not make the work your own, nor does eliminating, adding, or switching the order of a few sentences or clauses. It is still copying. Make sure that you present the information in your own words. You may use quotes (“ ”) to indicate where you have used someone else’s material, but do not let your work become a string of quotes without any of your own analysis.

Copying without attribution is still stealing someone else’s work and claiming it as your own. It is lying about your own efforts and understanding.
