Excerpt: .have been construed by an excellent interpreter into these. Great Spirit! Master of our lives! Great Spirit! master of every thing visible and invisible, and who daily makes them visible and invisible! Great Spirit! master of every other spirit, good or bad, command the good to be favorable to us, and deter the bad from the commission of evil! Oh! Grand Spirit! preserve the strength and courage of our warriors, and augment their number, that they may resist the oppression of their Spanish enemies, and recover the country and the rights of their fathers! Oh! Grand Spirit! preserve the lives of such of our old men, as are inclined to give council and example to the young! Preserve our children, multiply their number, and let them be the comfort and support of declining age! Preserve our corn and our animals, and let not famine desolate...

From American Thanksgiving to New Years is the busiest travel time in the US. People are going home to big family gatherings and the prices of flights within the country go up. If you can, avoid this time of year. Getting Around in America Solo: Planes, Trains, Buses and Cars. Know your highways. Two-digit highways often go directly through cities while three-digit roads go around them. Below mentioned are the ten of the most amazing and famous cultural festivals held throughout America. A number of people from all over the country come to watch these festivities. 1: New Orleans Mardi Gras, Louisiana. This festival stretches for two weeks before and after Shrove Tuesday until it is Ash Wednesday. Small to huge parades are held during the whole festival with the largest parade taking place on the last five days with sometimes a ball held at the last day. The festival is organised by social clubs in the city. Travels in America. 337 likes. Follow us on our travels through all of the lower 48 states. See more of Travels in America on Facebook.
