"Kabbalah teaches that transformation means becoming a being of giving and sharing. This refers to more than acts of sharing. It means connecting with the Light, becoming one with the Creator, and making your essence and the essence of the Creator one and the same," writes Michael Berg, one of the key figures, along with his father Rav, at the Kabbalah Centre which has branches in many countries and a website, www.kabbalah.com.^Â Berg believes that the mystical wisdom of this way speaks to the modern condition and is filled with practical tips. Kabbalah teaches that the creation of the world is an on-going process and that we are in partnership with the Creator. The whole point of life is to share with others the bounties we have received.
