Ruby Sky Stiler was born in 1979 in Portland, Maine, and lives and works in New York City. Her monochromatic sculptures and reliefs draw upon a wide range of cultural references, evoking the forms of classical antiquities and the fractured aesthetic of Cubist painting and collage. Rather than using marble, stone, or ceramic, Stiler works with foam core, acrylic resin, plaster, and discarded elements from her studio, incorporating both the Each ghd platinum® tropic sky styler comes complete with an exclusive co-ordinating heat-resistant bag making it easy to take your new styler and style with you, wherever you go. #ghdwanderlust #GlobalHairDays. *50% less breakage and 2x more colour integrity vs a styler working at 230°C. 20% more shine vs untreated hair. 81% of 146 consumers agreed ghd platinum achieved ultimate results in one stroke and ranked it significantly better than their own styler for leaving hair looking and feeling healthier.
