I discovered a secret about writing an essay. I learned how to not only write a great essay, but how to have fun while doing it. That's right. I said FUN.Â Every once in a while, I would write a really good essay, but mostly I skated by with Bâ€™s and A-minuses. I know personally how boring writing an essay can be, and also, how hard it can be to write a good one. However, toward the end of my time as a student, I made a breakthrough. I figured out how to not only write a great essay, I learned how to have fun while doing it. This resource begins with a general description of essay writing and moves to a discussion of common essay genres students may encounter across the curriculum. The four genres of essays (description, narration, exposition, and argumentation) are common paper assignments you may encounter in your writing classes.
